

DRAFT
20 September 1962

PROTECTION OF INTELLIGENCE DATA

1 1. This chapter shall apply within the admiralty and maritime 2 jurisdiction of the United States, on the high seas and elsewhere, as well 3 as within the United States.

4 2. For the purposes of this act the term "Intelligence Data" means
5 information and materials acquired, obtained by, or used in intelligence 6 activities of the United States concerning foreign countries and foreign 7 nationals connected with such intelligence activities but is not limited 8 to (1) notes, models, instruments, appliances, facts, statistics, analyses, 9 sketches, drawings, pictures, maps, graphic representations and photo-10 graphs; (2) intelligence sources and methods; (3) reports, evaluations and 11 estimates; and (4) procedures, equipment, techniques, devices and methods 12 used in the collection and production of intelligence data.

13 3. Whoever being or having been an officer or employee of any 14 department or agency of the United States, being or having been a member 15 of the armed forces, or being or having been a contractor of any agency
16 of the United States or being or having been an employee of a contractor
17 of any agency of the United States and in the course of such relationship
18 becomes possessed of Intelligence Data, knowingly, directly, or indirectly 19 imparts, discloses, publishes, divulges, or makes known in any manner, 20 or causes to be imparted, disclosed, published, divulged, or made known

1 in any manner, such Intelligence Data or any part thereof to any person 2 not entitled to receive Intelligence Data under law or executive order or 3 rules and regulations of any department or agency of the United States 4 shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than ten 5 years or both.

6 4. Whoever being or having been an officer or employee of any
7 department or agency of the United States, being or having been a member 8 of the armed forces, or being or having been a contractor of any agency of 9 the United States or being or having been an employee of a contractor of 10 any agency of the United States and in the course of such relationship
11 becomes possessed of Intelligence Data, knowingly, directly or indirectly 12 attempts to impart, disclose, publish, divulge, or make known in any 13 manner, or attempts to cause to be imparted, disclosed, published, 14 divulged, or made known in any manner such Intelligence Data or any part 15 thereof to any person not entitled to receive Intelligence Data under law 16 or executive order or rules and regulations of any department or agency
17 of the United States shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned 18 not more than ten years or both.

19 5. In the interests of the security of the intelligence activities of the 20 United States the departments and agencies having responsibility for

1 the protection of Intelligence Data from unauthorized disclosure are 2 hereby authorized to promulgate with the approval of the President rules 3 and regulations for the protection of such Intelligence Data from 4 unauthorized disclosure. Each department and agency concerned will 5 be responsible for ascertaining and investigating any unauthorized 6 disclosure and shall report promptly the results of their investigations to 7 the Attorney General for such action as might be appropriate under this 8 act or provisions of any other law.

9 6. Whenever in the judgment of the Attorney General any person has 10 engaged or is about to engage in any acts or practices which constitute or 11 will constitute a violation of this act, or any regulation or order issued 12 thereunder, or Section 798 of Title 18 United States Code, the Attorney 13 General on behalf of the United States may make application to the 14 appropriate court for an order enjoining such act or practices or for an 15 order enforcing compliance with the provisions of this act, or any 16 regulation or order issued thereunder, or Section 798 of Title 18 United 17 States Code, and upon a showing that such person has engaged or is about 18 to engage in any acts or practices a permanent or temporary injunction, 19 restraining order, or other order may be granted.
